PORTRAITS IN PENCIL

TUTOR - JOHN GLOVER

SATURDAY 18TH JULY 10.00AM - 4.00PM (PLEASE BE PROMPT)

£40.00

John Glover is a highly accomplished and experienced portrait painter. His work ranges from portraits in which he has captured the character and dignity of age, to others where it is the innocence of childhood that is portrayed. He works in all mediums from pencil to watercolour, pastel to oils.

Learn the joys of creating delicate portraits in pencil, an often underrated medium.

You will learn about proportion, and perspective and how through careful planning and measurement, the likeness will gradually begin to emerge. You will also be shown how, through the use of shading, your drawing will develop from a flat image to one which has a whole tonal range, thus breathing volume and life into it.

From rapid sketches to more finished portraits, this is an excellent opportunity to discover the beauty, power and delicacy of pencil drawing.

This workshop is a very useful one in preparation for the Portraits in Watercolour.
