SATURDAY 12TH SEPTEMBER 10.00AM - 4.00PM (PLEASE BE PROMPT)

£40.00

Sandie Hawkins BA(Hons); SBA is a member of Icení Botanical Artists group and working with graphite pencils is her favourite technique. She has had work selected for the SBA Annual Exhibition at the Westminster Gallery in London.

The class will cover the level of learning the class requires, introductions to paper, equipment and materials needed.

During the class there will be exercises for tonal observations and pencil control, working on simple shapes to define 3D depth in squares, spheres, boxes, tubes and cups (concave and convex).

You will then begin working from a choice of specimen provided. (i.e. conkers, filbert nuts, dried autumn leaves, acorns and seedheads. There will be a chance to show and share works completed during the day.

Materials required:

Graphite pencils - 2H, H & HB
Soft pencil eraser
Pad of heavy cartridge paper

We will provide:

Table easels, boards to rest paper on and masking tape.

15% discount available on art products for anyone booked on to the course.
Two uses permitted which expire at the end of the course.
