WATER AND LANDSCAPES IN PASTEL

TUTOR - ANDREW HARRINGTON

THURSDAY 29TH OCTOBER 10.00AM - 4.00PM (PLEASE BE PROMPT)

£40.00

Andrew Harrington is a local artist living in Bury St Edmunds. Although he regularly does watercolour commissions, his true passion is in pastel work, in particular the beautiful colours of the Mediterranean. Pastels are particularly effective for producing atmosphere in a painting and stunning water effects.

A complete course on producing a variety of water effects and understanding all aspects of landscape painting. From transparent to opaque, reflective and both still and moving bodies of water. The class will also cover understanding the effect of light on water, the dynamics of reflections, perspective and efficient shading, vibrant colour use and subtle light use to produce moody and dramatic skies. A degree of multimedia applications will be demonstrated to achieve these effects. Time allowing you will produce a finished painting on the day.

Materials required:
